About Me

Anne M. Burnett

Watercolor Artist & Surface Pattern Designer

I am a visual artist located in the Pacific Northwest, just north of Seattle. Originally from California, many of my themes revolve around the ocean and nature.

I specialize in watercolor, illustration, and fiber art. I am skilled in digital design with 27 years as a professional User Experience and Visual Designer. I have an educational background in Art and Psychology, which speaks to my love of people and understanding the variety in how people perceive the world.

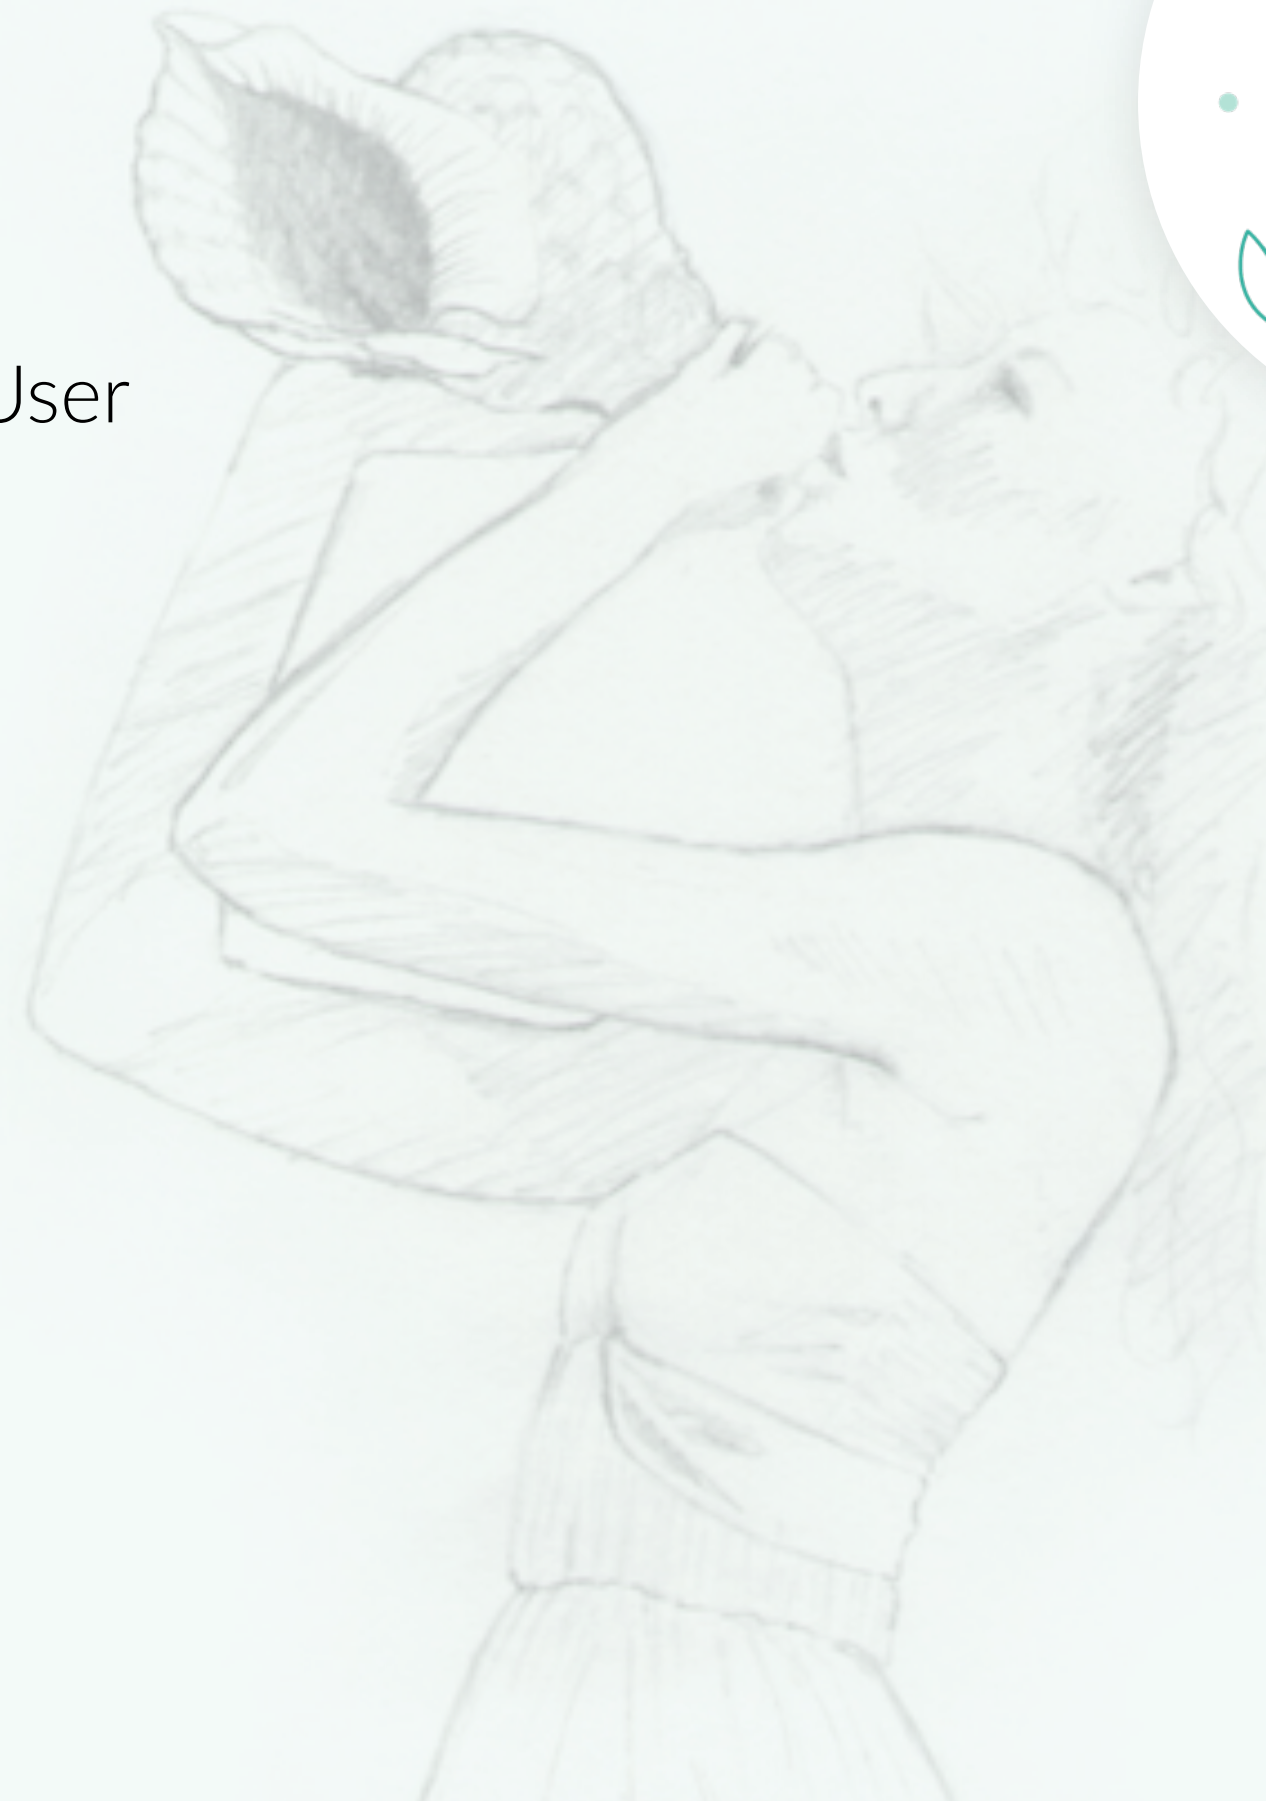

I currently run a blog and two online shops:

Poezy.com
PoezyDesigns.Etsy.com

Themes & Signature Style

Coastal

Relaxed, natural, meditative, peaceful, sometimes lively and a bit of fairy

Tide pools, kelp, waves, topography, ponds, waterlilies, stripes and washes

Organic Abstract

Rich, earthy, and moody

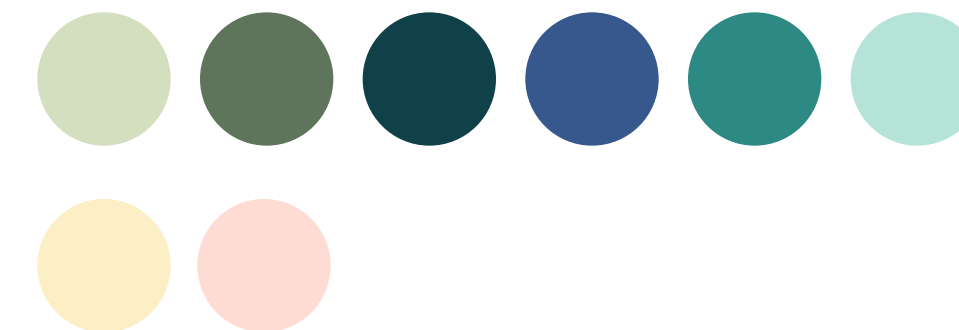

Organic shapes evoking geography, meteorites, and mineral washes

Sun, Moon, Horizon

Hopeful, expansive, and serene

Iconic symbols of day and night across the landscape with a stylistic edge

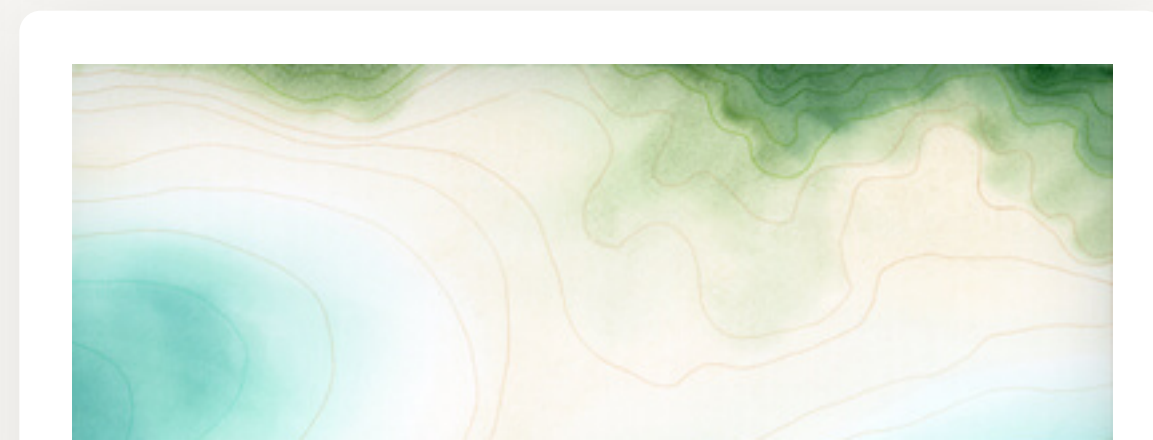

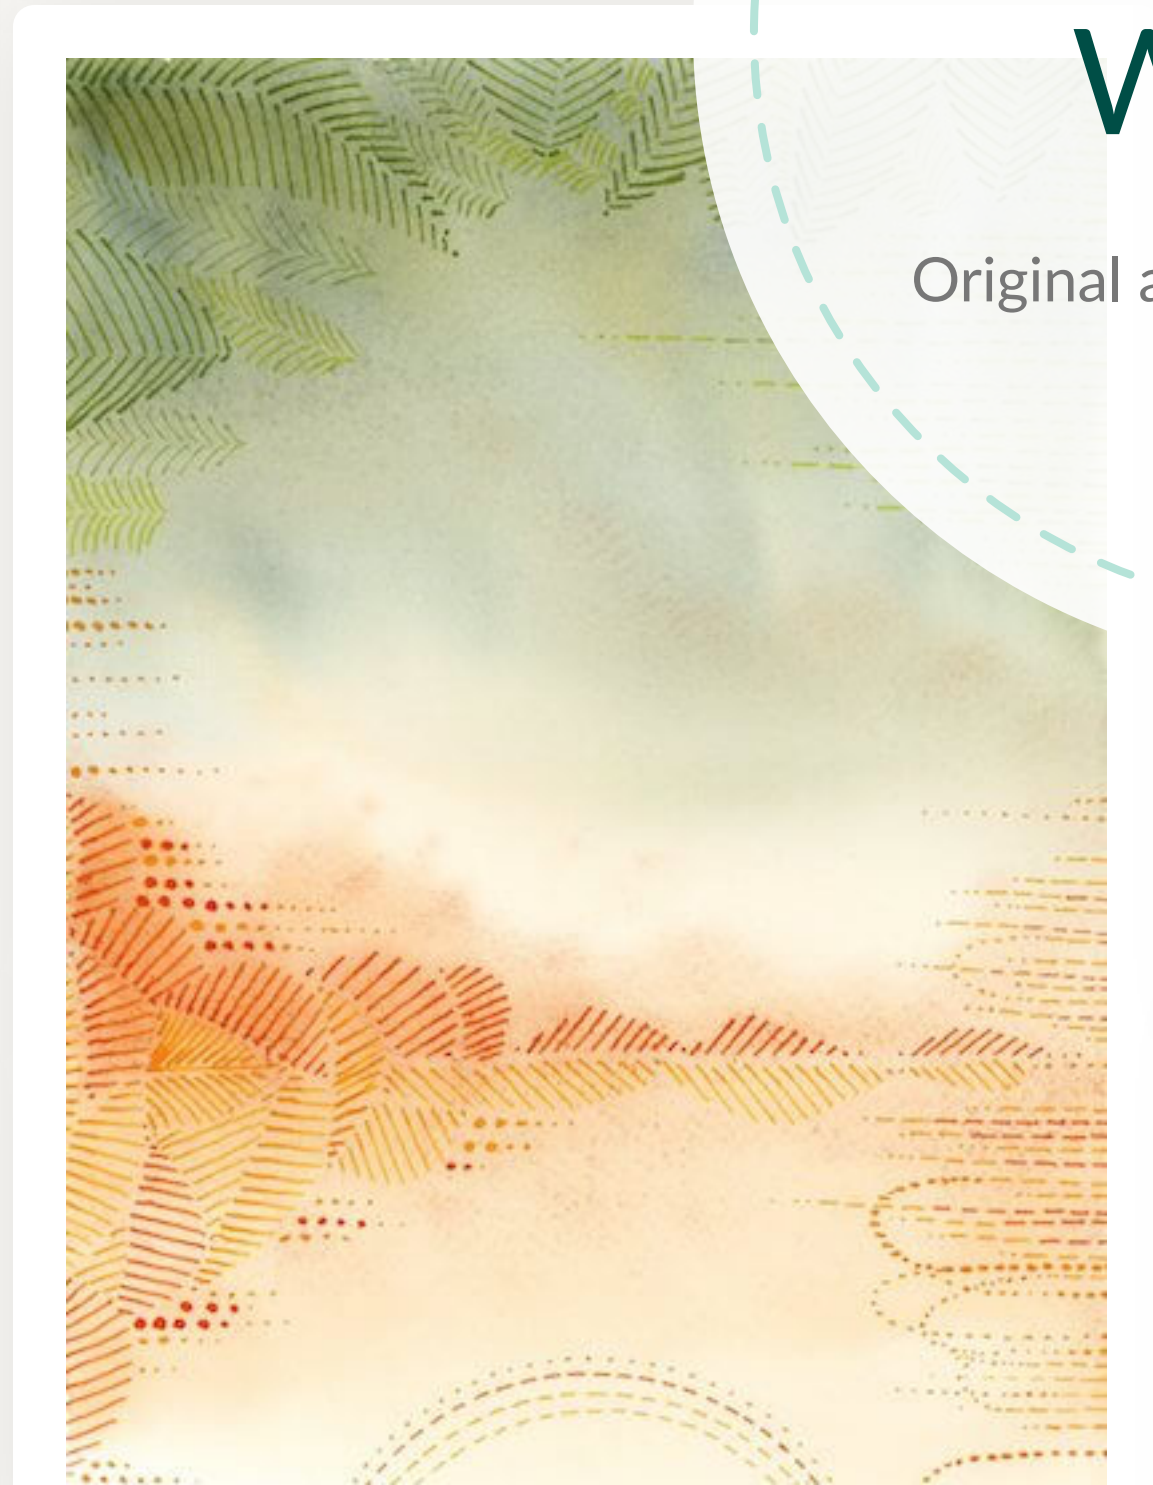

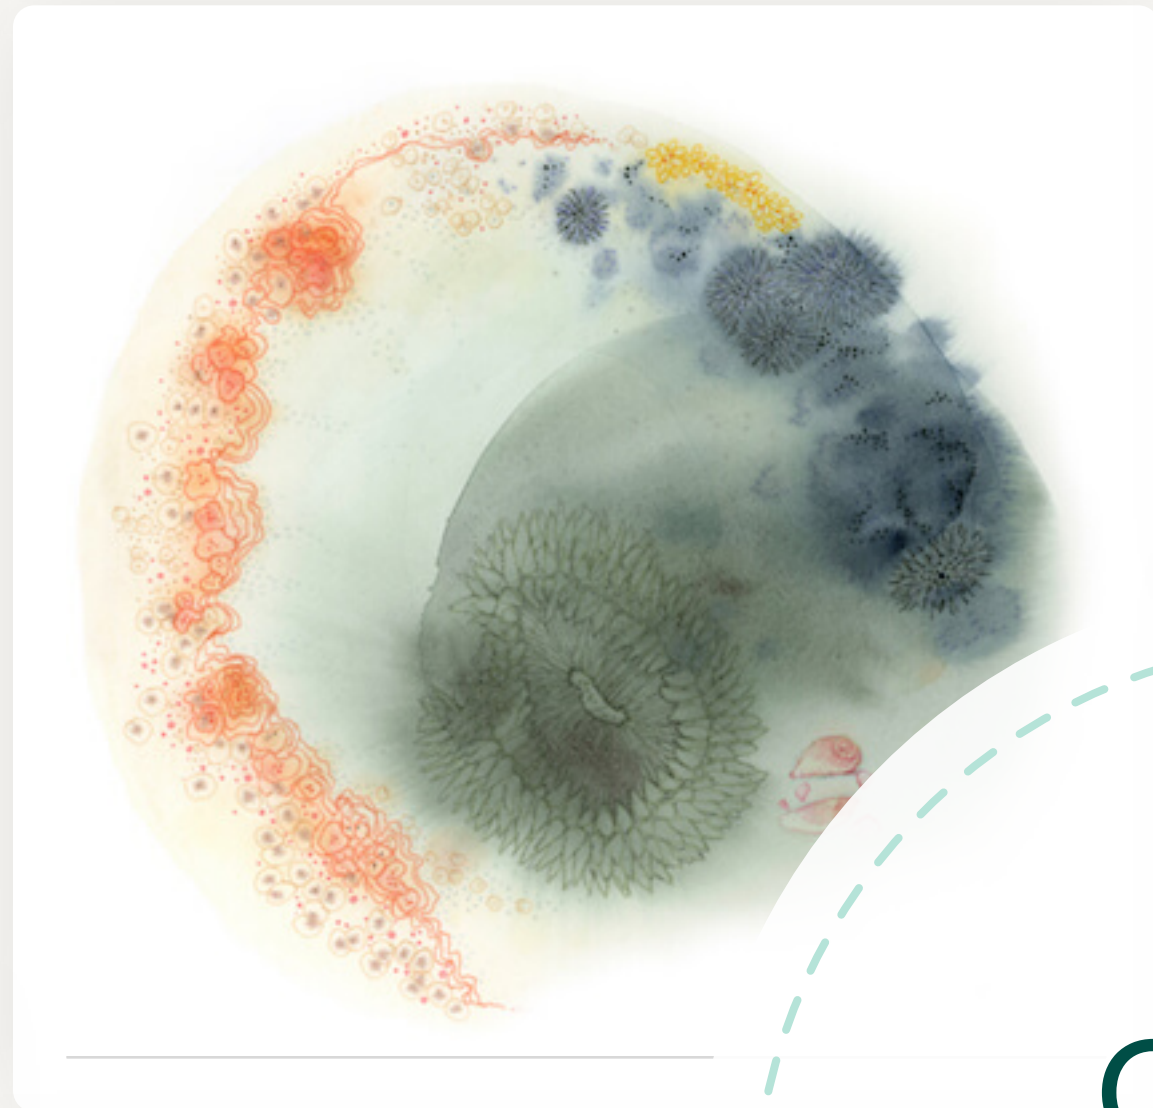

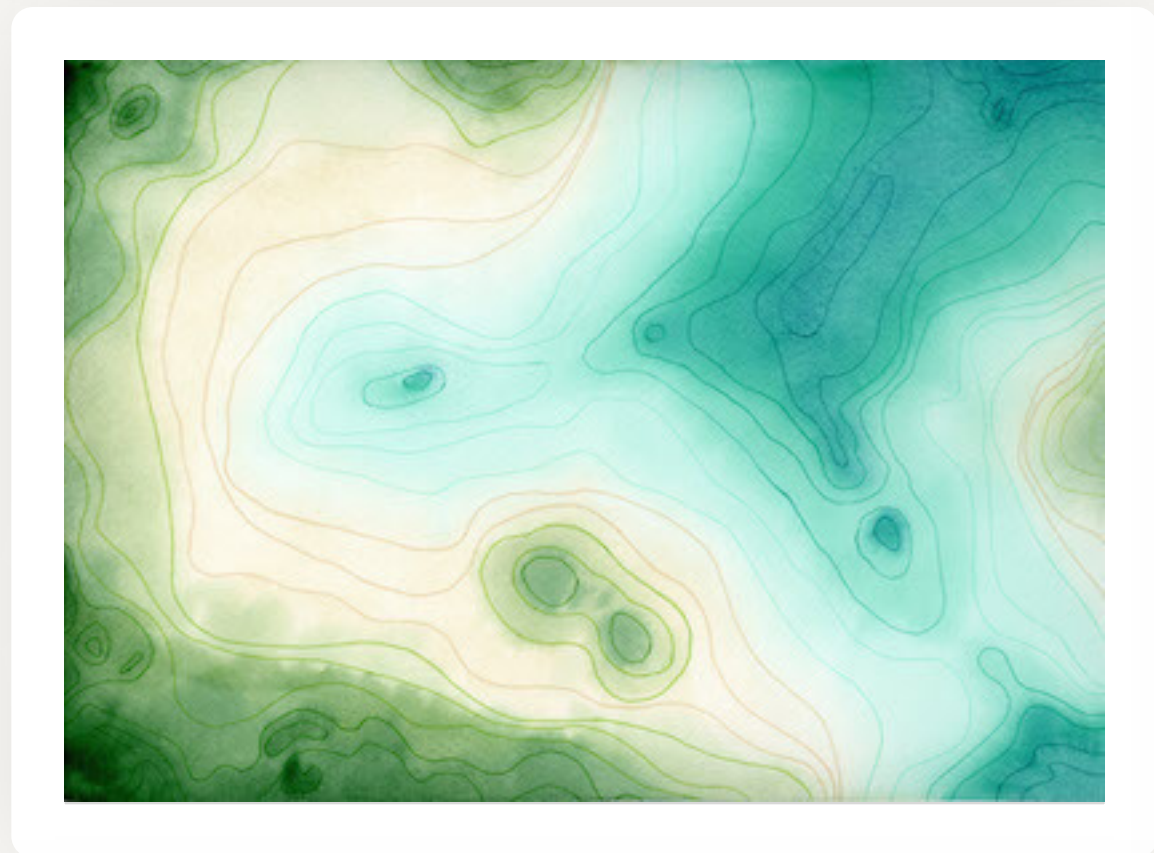

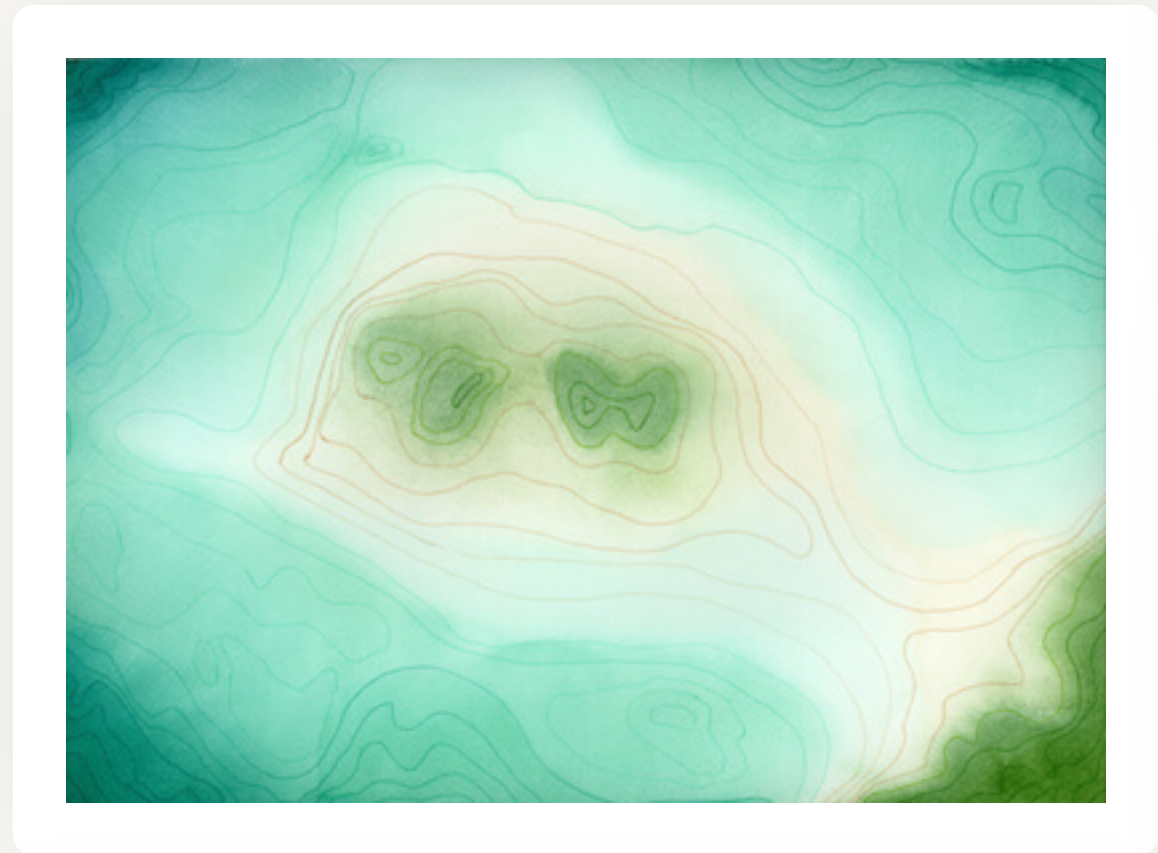

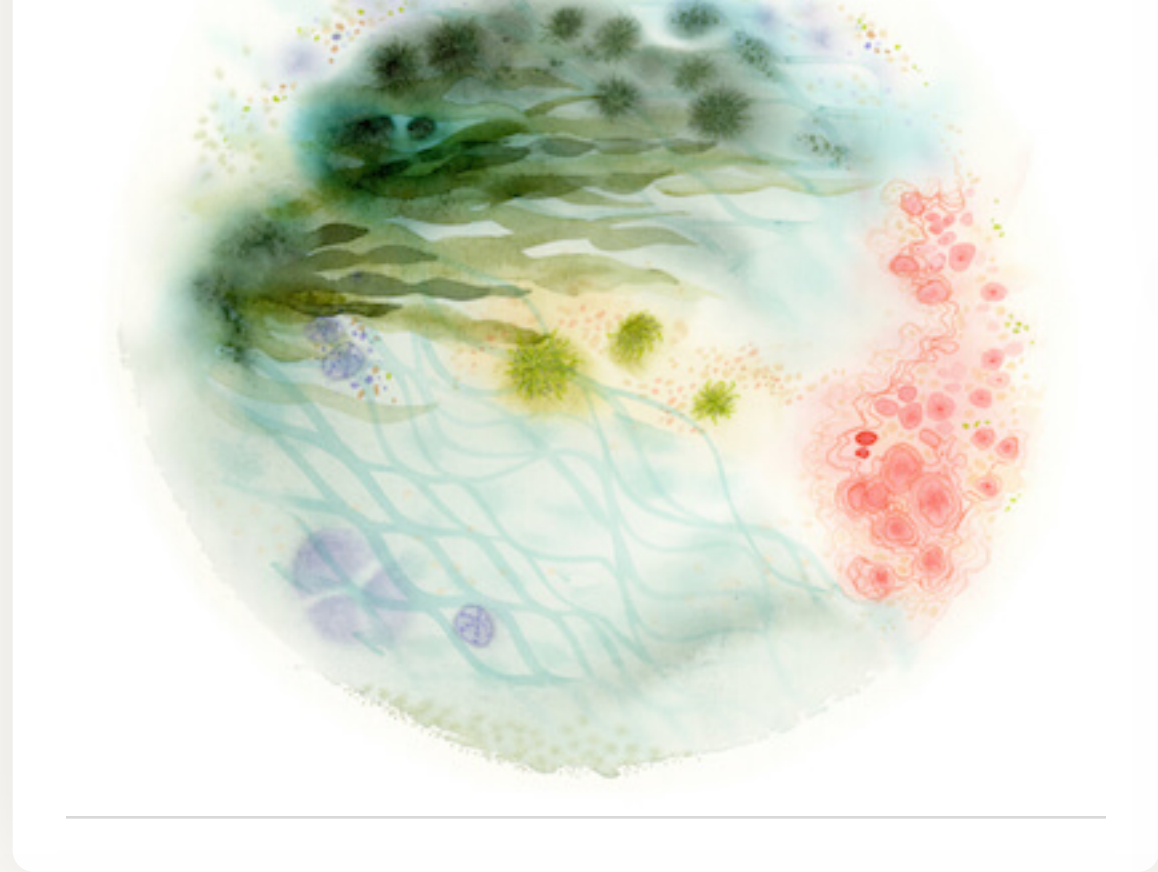

Vibrant & Playful

Fun, playful, party vibe

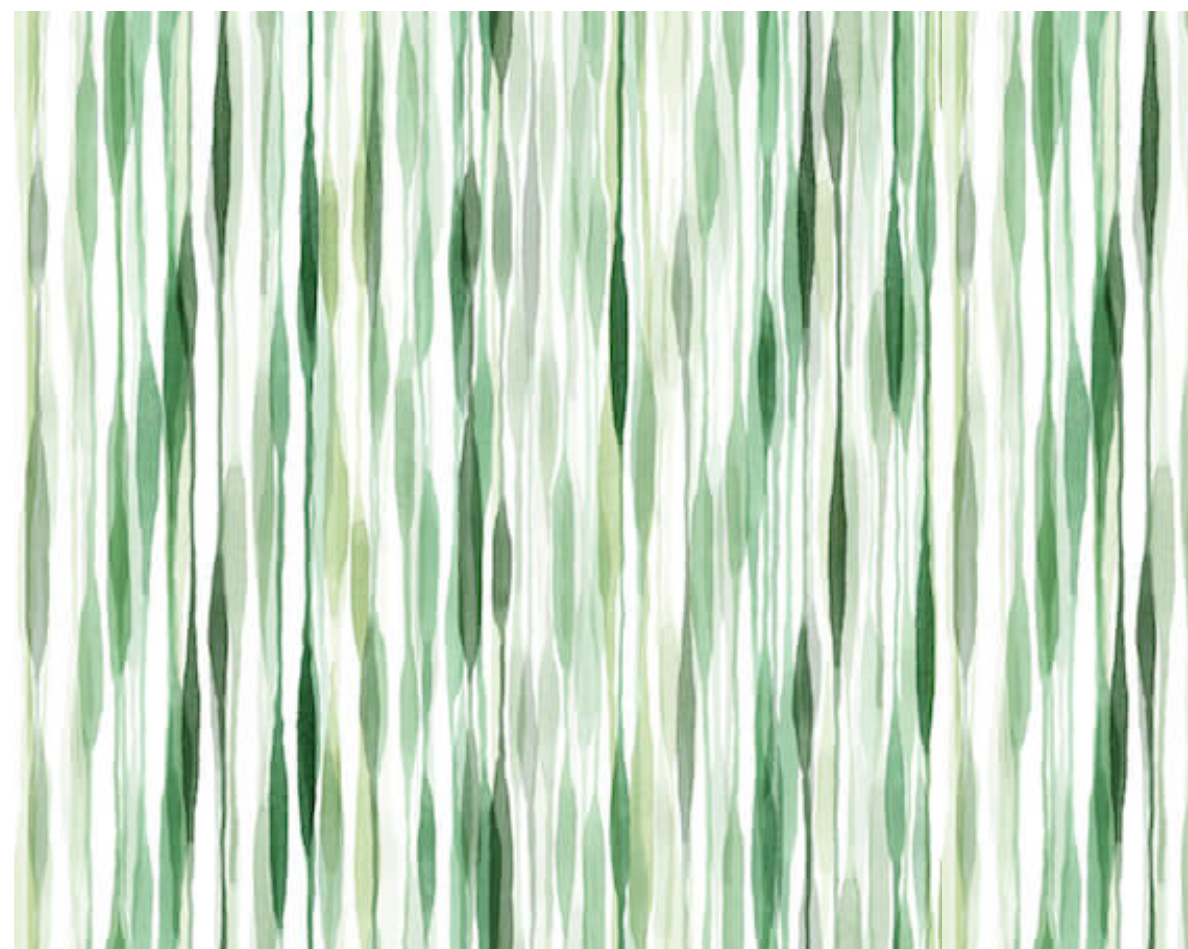

Polkadots, stripes, dots and dashes, paw prints and holiday fare—fresh takes on classic motifs

Let's Connect

Thank you for taking the time to sample my latest collections. You can see more at Poezy.com.

I'd love to hear from you and find out how I could help add fresh art to your brand.

It's like looking at a dream. Your work is just so beautiful. I've gotten three things from this shop and I couldn't be happier. Wish I could buy one of everything! Thank you!
